

Welcome To Friends Of The Mountain Dulcimer!

Welcome To Our BRAND NEW SITE !!

After six wonderful years on the old rented platform and location, FOTMD has now migrated to a new platform that is faster, mobile responsive, more stable, with way more ability to customize and add to your style, ability, or tastes. Become a member of Friends of the Mountain Dulcimer (FOTMD) today!

Please- read the Site Rules first, then join up and look for your name link at top to your profile. You can join groups that interest you, 'follow' your friends and activities, add your own photos, music, and more. You will be notified about. You create a membership experience that truly reflects who you are. (You are in charge!)

So don't be shy- you've come to the right place to receive or give friendly free help and support. Welcome to the party! -Strumelia
